High tea at A Taste of Britain

With its cozy décor and unique UK flair, A Taste of Britain is ideal for a warm winter lunch or high tea with its unique selection of teas, sandwiches, scones and preserves and an assortment of pastries. Its annual Valentine's Day full afternoon tea, held this year on February 13, from 11a.m.-5p.m., is a unique way to celebrate. Sip amazing teas like Read My Lips (an invigorating black tea with vanilla, mint and sugar lips), French Kiss (Rooibos tea with chocolate mint and caramel) and ginseng and pomegranate black tea. And sample tea sandwiches such as beef tenderloin with cherry chutney, turkey with cranberry butter, cucumber and dill cream cheese hearts and smoked salmon with caper cream cheese. There will also be white and dark chocolate scones with clotted cream, raspberry preserves and lemon curd and mini pastries such as chocolate mousse shots, cheesecake lollipops and petit fours. 610-971-0390; EasyElegance.net Both georges' and A Taste of Britain are located at 503 West Lancaster Avenue, Wayne. eaglevil-lageshops.com
